THE BAC BULLETIN & DANBURY AVIATION NEWS

Private and Corporate Pilot News

» July Issue, 2010

Danbury Municipal Airport's
Foremost FBO (KDXR)

Welcome to the Premier Issue of the BAC Bulletin

Each month, we bring you industry news and highlight the goings-on at our Danbury FBO, including new cost-savings programs, exclusive offers, Fly-ins and events, and news private aircraft pilots need to know. To sign up, visit BusinessAircraftCenter.com and find out what's new at BAC. Happy flying and we hope to see you soon!

New Ownership Brings Improvements to BAC

In March, Business Aircraft Center was purchased by Tango Yankee, LLC. Since then, BAC has been busy with renovations, planning fun Fly-Ins, lowering jet fuel prices, and providing frequent customers with "Corporate Crew Rewards" program that offers a $50 Amex Gift Card for every fuel-up of 500 gallons or more...

Corporate Jets Do Not Equate to Corporate Greed

The industry is fighting back. During the height of the recession, corporate jet travel was vilified, becoming the poster child for what was wrong with the economy, at least according to certain congress members who pointed it out during the car company bail-out hearings. However, according to an article in Forbes, the industry is working to educate the consumer as to why it's not always a luxury, but it is also a necessity for many businesses.
